Greetings from Lubbock and West Texas,

Well it has been busy since the last time. We have been able to hold Dist and Club playdays. Jackie, Ashley (my granddaughter), and I traveled to Bowie for the 50/50. Wow what a day, it was LONG AND HOT!! Our Association was down on the numbers, but we gave a good showing. We did lose the trophy to National, only by 57 points. I think everyone was having a good time down there, if you missed it maybe you can make it next year. I want to thank Ashley for working in the concession stand all day. It was good to see RE Meyers again, Glen brought him out to enjoy the show. We had some really hard workers that day. Parker Cantrell was the tractor drover for the day he did a great job. Thank you to all Association members that worked and helped out where needed. We ended at about 11 pm.

I want to send out my sympathy to the Worthington family on the loss of Liz Worthington. She and Gene were very active members in the past.

I have been elected by Region 1 to serve as VP again. Thank you to everyone that was at the meeting and voted.

District 2 will conclude their playday season on Aug 21, results to be posted next month. I attended a benefit playday for a Terry County member that lost a thumb during the Brownfield Rodeo.

Unfortunately I won't be in attendance for the NARC finals Labor Day weekend.

WTR has started their playday season, if your in the area come play with us.

Jackie's nephew, Blake Dunlap, lost his right thumb and the tip of his ring finger roping this month. He was flown to Parkland Hospital in Dallas for the surgery. He will be home by the time this comes out. There is talk of a benefit roping for him to help with medical expenses. I will post information on Facebook as it comes available.

Horseshow Finals are around the corner hope everyone has their horses ready and primed for rail work. Don't forget about convention coming up in October, I'm ready for the bus ride to the casino. Hope everyone is planning on attending this year.

Until we meet again happy trails to you,
Ronnie Elrod

Region 2

Hello All from Reg. 2!

Great to see so many of ya'll at 50/50. Boy was it HOT!! And speaking of we had a Dist. 31 playday and it was 106 degrees. Holy cow. But we got it done, had a meeting to elect officers and had a great day. Afterward Mike and I went with Annette to see Travis and their vintage Mustang in Vernon at "Summers Last Blast" everybody cruises the "drag" in their vintage cars and there are folks lining the sidewalk, vendors etc..... At the end of the evening Travis fell, hurt his ankle and had to go to the emergency room. So guess who drove the car hauler back with the antique car in it? Me!!! I was a nervous wreck! Travis needs bubble wrap or he's gonna run out of body parts. In spite of it all making the drag was BLAST and the Waggoner's car is awesome.

Convention plans are well under way, lots of cool stuff planned and I hope lots of you can make it! Tomorrow I go back to work, Boo Hoo school starting you know, so real life goes on! I will not be at the National Finals, we are in the Labor Day Classic volleyball tournament. So, see you down the road.

Region 5

Hello Everyone,

I do apologize for not having an article in the last issue of the Rider's Round Up. Sometimes the calendar gets away from me as it almost did this month as well. There has not been a ton of things going on until now. I have been helping a friend with her jewelry booth at the North Texas State Fair and Rodeo on top of working so I have been a busy girl. I have seen a lot of Region 5 members walking around and other association members. Congratulations to John Jeter and crew for getting first place in the parade with their chuck wagon. He also told me they placed in several of the food categories. Of course we all remember the good food we had at Spring Round Up and Playday Finals. Eric and I were even walking around on Sunday afternoon and saw some Bowie people that had come to our part of the country. We saw the Blahuta's and who could miss Leo's hat. He was helping with one of the exhibition shows outside of the arena. I am sure I will see more people as the week wears on, however so far the week is wearing me out.

The last thing I did association wise was the 50/50. I didn't bring a horse but I did go up to help out where I could. Donna and I were introduced on foot which was fine with us. It was a long day. We had a good time anyway.

Although when it got to about 5 and the third event had not started, we were already so tired that everything was funny especially Varsi's first experience eating Fun Dip candy you had be there but that was pretty funny. We didn't when the trophy back this year but the people that rode sure did give it a good shot since we were a bit outnumbered. A huge thanks to Parker Cantrell for dragging the arena and thanks to everyone who helped make the day a success.

On August 31, 2010 we will be having a Region 5 meeting and election of the 2011-2012 Region 5 Vice President at the Lewisville Saddle Club arena. I have thoroughly enjoyed serving as Region 5 VP this year. I am happy to serve again because I have enjoyed this year so much and the end of the next term will be Region 5's year to host convention which I have always thought was fun. I want to continue to be a part of the good things happening for us. However if anyone else is interested please attend this meeting.

Next on the agenda for me after I survive the North Texas State Fair and Rodeo, is the Lewisville Saddle Club Labor Day Rodeo. This is a bit closer to my heart. We work hard but we have lots of fun. If you happen to be in the area stop by to see some great rodeo action. After that will be Horseshow Finals and then before we know it convention, so everyone start getting your delegates and executive board voters lined up.

I would like to say 3rd Happy Anniversary to my husband Eric on September 8. I love you!

Good luck to all of the kids that have started back to school. I hope you have a great school year. I do miss my easy traffic days in Dallas now that school has started but I am sure the parents are glad the kids went back.

"Courage is being scared to death and saddling up anyway".

Until next month,

Summer Savage, Region 5 Vice President

Region 6

Hello again from Region 6

Well its been a really hot month this month. Here in San Angelo we have set a new record for consecutive days over 100 degrees, so far I think it has been 23 days of 100+. Thankfully it has been a slow month. Twin Mountain had a playday the last Sat of July and then we went to Big Lake for WTERs playday the next weekend. We really enjoyed both playdays except for it was hot. The last two weekend we have actually been able to stay at home and get some stuff done around the house.

We are really looking forward to making the trip to Bowie, Labor Day weekend for Nationals finals. Hope to see alot of you there, we can use all the help we can get.

Then we will be making the trip to Horseshow Finals. It sounds like KD has a lot of good stuff planned for that weekend, and don't forget to make your reservations for Convention.

Buster Jones Region 6 VP

Dear Horse,

I love you very much, and I truly cherish your presence in my life. I would never wish to criticize you in any way. However, there are a few trivial details regarding our relationship that I think might bear your consideration.

First of all, I am already aware that horses can run faster than I can. I do not need you to demonstrate that fact each time I come to get you in the pasture. Please remember that I work long and hard to earn the money to keep you in the style to which you have become accustomed. In return, I think you should at least pretend to be glad to see me, even when I'm carrying a bridle instead of a bucket of oats.

It should be fairly obvious to you that I am a human being who walks on only two legs. I do not resemble a scratching post. Do not think that, when you rub your head against me with 1,000 pounds of force behind it, I believe that it wasn't your intention to send me flying. I am also aware that stomping on my toes while you are pushing me around is nothing but adding injury to insult.

I understand I cannot expect you to cover your nose when you sneeze, but it would be appreciated if you did not inhale large amounts of dirt and manure prior to aiming your sneezes at my face and shirt. Also, if you have recently filled your mouth with water you do not intend to drink, please let it all dribble from your mouth BEFORE you put your head on my shoulder. In addition, while I know you despise your deworming medication, my intentions in giving it to you are good, and I really do not think I should be rewarded by having you spit half of it back out onto my shirt.

Sometimes, I get the feeling that you are confused about the appropriate roles you should play in various situations. One small bit of advice: Your stone-wall imitation should be used when I am mounting and your speed-walker imitation when I suggest that we proceed on our way, not vice versa. Please also understand that jumping is meant to be a we are supposed to go over the jump together. You were purchased to be a mount, not a catapult.

I know the world is a scary place when your eyes are on the sides of your head, but I did spend a significant amount of money to buy you, and I have every intention of protecting that investment. Therefore, please consider the following when you are choosing the appropriate behavior for a particular situation:

When I put your halter on you, attach one end of a lead rope to the halter, and tie the other end of the lead rope to a post or rail or whatever, I am indicating a desire for you to remain in that locale. I would also like the halter, lead rope, post, etc., to remain intact. While I admit that things like sudden loud noises can be startling, I do not consider them to be acceptable excuses for repeatedly snapping expensive new lead ropes (or halters or posts) so that you can run madly around the barn area creating havoc in your wake. Such behavior is not conducive to achieving that important goal that I know we both share -- decreasing the number of times the veterinarian comes out to visit you.

By the same token, the barn aisle was not designed for the running of the Kentucky Derby and is not meant to serve as a racetrack. Dragging me down the aisle in leaps and bounds is not how "leading" is supposed to work, even if someone happens to drop a saddle on the floor as we're passing. Pulling loose and running off is also discouraged (... although I admit it does allow you to run faster).

I assure you that blowing pieces of paper do not eat horses. While I realize you are very athletic, I do not need a demonstration of your ability to jump 25 feet sideways from a standing start while swapping ends in midair, nor am I interested in your ability to emulate both a racehorse and a bucking bronco while escaping said piece of paper. Also, if the paper were truly a danger, it would be the height of unkindness to dump me on the ground in front of it as a sacrificial offering to expedite your escape.

When I ask you to cross a small stream, you may safely assume that said stream does not contain crocodiles, sharks, or piranhas, nor will it be likely to drown you. (I have actually seen horses swimming, so I know it can be done.) I expect you to be prepared to comply with the occasional request to wade across some small body of water. Since I would like to be dry when we reach the other side of the stream, deciding to roll when we're halfway across is not encouraged behavior.

I give you my solemn oath that the trailer is nothing but an alternate means of transportation for distances too long for walking. It is not a lion's den or a dragon's maw, nor will it magically transform into such. It is made for horses, and I promise you that you will indeed fit into your assigned space. Please also bear in mind that I generally operate on a schedule, and wherever we're going, I would really like to get there today.

For the last time, I do not intend to abandon you to a barren, friendless existence. If I put you in a turn-out pen, I promise that no predators will eat you, and I will come back in due time to return you to your stall. It is not necessary to run in circles, whinny pathetically, threaten to jump the fence, or paw at the gate. Neither your stall mates nor I will have left the premises. The other horses standing peacefully in adjacent pens amply demonstrate that it is possible to enjoy being turned out for exercise.

In order to reassure you, my dear horse, I have posted the following message on your stall door:

"Notice to People Who Complain About My Horse"...

1. I like my horse a lot better than I like people who complain about her.
2. To you, she's an animal; to me, she's a big, hairy, four-legged daughter --- and you know what they say about coming between a mother and her children.
3. This stall is her castle, and you are expected to treat her as the queen she thinks she is.

4. If you don't want her to steal your carrots, don't walk by her with the carrots sticking out of your pockets.

5. Horses are better than husbands or kids. They eat grass, don't smoke or drink, don't expect an allowance, don't voluntarily get their body parts pierced, don't hog the remote, don't waste the whole weekend watching football with their friends, don't talk back to you, don't compare you unfavorably with their friends' owners, don't keep you awake with their snoring --- and no horse ever left the toilet seat up after going to the bathroom.

Finally, in closing, my strong and gentle companion, I would like to point out that, whatever might happen between horses and their people, we humans will always love you. In fact, our bonds with you help create new bonds among ourselves, even with total strangers. Wherever there are horses, there will be "horse people", and for the blessings you bestow upon us, we thank you.

Most sincerely yours,

Your Owner

Brushy Creek Saddle Club

Brushy Creek Saddle Club had our August playday on Saturday the 14th. Because of the extreme heat, the playday was held in the evening hours which really made for a nice time. Temperatures were much more bearable for horses, riders, workers, and spectators. The events for the August playday were Pylons, Poles, Spur, Straight, and Cloverleaf Barrels. We had some new faces with us that evening. We were graced with the presence of 12 guest riders and we were very excited about that. It is always nice to see new faces at the playdays. The saddle club would like to thank all of our guests for attending and welcome them back at any time.

We would also like to extend a special thanks to Joy Mainville, our AASP&RC Queen for riding with us at our August playday as well as her father, Sarge Mainville, who is our Region 7 Vice President.

The winners from the August 14, 2010 playday are as follows:

Also, we wish to extend a special thanks to all those who helped out behind the scenes announcing, preparing ribbons, working the arena, setting up events, judging and so on. These people are invaluable and are responsible for making the playdays run smoothly.

We Love you Addie!!

The Brushy Creek Saddle Club would like you to keep Addie Renfro in your prayers. Addie recently had some health issues and was temporarily hospitalized. Fortunately, Addie is on the road to recovery and is currently in the Sagebrook Health Center in Cedar Park, TX for rehabilitation.
