President U.B. Herrington

Howdy Everyone,

I hope everyone had a good Memorial Day. Finals is approaching in a few weeks so I know everyone is trying to get their horses ready. Thanks for everyone that sent in their entries early so we could get a head start on the books. We have assigned the work list and it is in the Riders Roundup. You should have received an email with it also. We tried very hard not to assign districts to work more than twice but we are down in entries this year and didn't have a choice.

We will have an Executive Board Meeting at 6:30 on Tuesday prior to Finals, please make sure you bring your letters. At 7:30 to 8:00, we will have a rules meeting. Please have your two assigned people there that will be on the rules committee for protests. There will be an officer's meeting at 6:00 in the office prior to the Executive Board Meeting.

One other thing, don't forget you will have to mow around your stalls. All of the grounds will not be mowed. Please call if you have any questions.

Thanks
U.B. Herrington
AASP&RC President

AASP&RC 2014 DATES

June 18 – 21st – Playday Finals

July 26th – 50/50 Challenge

October 17th and 18th –

Region 1 VP Jackie Dunlap

Greetings from Lubbock,

WE GOT RAIN!!!! THANK THE LORD!!! We finally got much needed rain here in Lubbock and all of Texas. There is water standing every where and mud boots are a must. I pray it's not all we are going to get this year. Riding has been a challenge this year. Blowing dust and high winds since the first of the year. Now it's muddy I'll take the mud any day of blowing dirt.

Playdays are in full swing around here. Playday finals is right around the corner. I would like to wish everyone good luck in the competition. This year Region 1 and 5 will be presenting a Sportsmanship Award on Saturday. We will be watching to see who deserves to receive this award.

This year the "BIG" NAPA of Lubbock Tool Sale and Customer appreciation week fell the week of PDF. As of now I won't be able to attend finals this year. I would like to apologize to everyone for not doing my job as Region VP, but I have to have a job so I can continue to go to Bowie and do my VP job. I'm still hoping the dates will change. It's not looking promising for me. May everyone ride to their abilities no matter what those might be. Good luck to all. I might be sliding in sideways on Friday.

I'm looking forward to the 50/50 playday in July. I'm hoping to leave here a day early and find a barrel race on Friday in the area.

Upcoming playdays in the area District 2 June 28th, July 19th August 23rd.

West Texas Drifters July 13th August 9th if you are in the area come ride with us. We welcome new people with open arms.

May 29th my niece Lindsey Dunlap graduates Idalou High School. The family will be here and we are planning on attending a team sorting in Levelland.

I'm really excited to be sorting with my family. Be thankful for the rain,
Jackie Dunlap

Here it is the middle of May. The playday finals are staring us in the face. Looks like I'll be an also ran again this year. Every time I think I might have a shot at winning, something happens. A couple of years ago my horse was doing well until we had a trailer mishap and he injured his shoulder. Last year I pulled a groin and tore a stomach muscle about a month before finals.

I turned my horse over to Wyn D Lee Roberts before the last district playday. She took him to the district playday at Twin Mountains and did well there. She ran some really low times and won Hi Point.

Then she took him to Spring Roundup and he helped her win the saddle, running poles a full second faster than the nearest competitor.

My old horse "Rocky" turned 30 this month. I retired him after the 2006 finals at age 22. He went out a winner, winning the finals back to back in 2005-2006. He was quite a horse accumulating 23 saddles. 5 were at Bowie. He was also runner up 3 or 4 times at Bowie. It was a hard decision to retire him while he was still doing so well but I did not want to ride him until he was a cripple. Carrying a 230# rider that fast is hard on an old horse.

By the way I want everyone to know that I am not conceited enough to post those photos of myself. I wrote the article longhand and gave it to Ruby to e-mail to Stephani. Ruby is responsible for the photos, so don't blame me if they hurt your eyes.

I would like to discuss our declining membership and members lack of interest. Jackie Dunlap reflected my thoughts when she wrote about our declining membership last month. We do need to start a membership drive and we do need to make new members feel at home. Many dropout because they are unable to compete at a high level. We need to encourage new members and help them. Maybe even put on some clinics.

We need to contact clubs who are not association members and invite them to join. I think some of the cowboy churches would be a good place to start.

Like it or not, many members give other organizations higher priorities than our association. I noticed a decline in interest about 10 years ago. A lot of our people began to join Jr. Rodeo associations back then. The number of young boys and men declined faster than the girls. Actually I have noticed an increase in intermediate women the last few years. The guys seem to think play days are sissy or kid stuff and prefer to play cowboy with a rope or team pen.

If we can't lick em maybe we should join em! By that I mean maybe we should hold some kid rodeos of our own. Just a thought we might kick around.

Another problem that is working against us is the cost of travel and expense of maintaining horses. Believe me, I can tell you all about that.

Hope to see everyone at finals.

Hello from West Texas!

We've been blessed with rain. We are so thankful for every bit of it. We got about 3 1/2 inches at our place. We are hoping to see some grass turn green now.

WTD had our third playday May 10. We had about 23 riders out that day. We all had a great time.

We have several families going to Bowie from our club. We have Mason family (mine), Couch, Blackburn, Byrne, Gentry, then we have the Lozano's and Epley family coming from LSC. We are very excited about getting to compete in Bowie.

All I know is that my older sister Bella went last year and my mom has teased her all year long about what happens in Bowie stays in Bowie.

We will not have a play day in June so that we can get packed and ready to head to Bowie.

Our club will have our first parade on the 4th of July. This will be my hometown of Abernathy. I'm looking forward to riding in it.

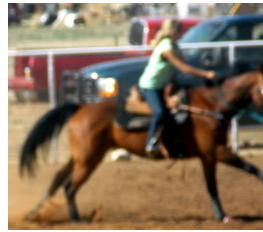

Our club ordered shirts this year and had our club logo put on them. We looked really sharp for the ABC rodeo. I am looking forward to seeing how well we look for our parades. Hopefully we'll have a good turnout of club members to ride.

Our next club meeting will be June 5.

I'm sure I'm missing something that I should keep everyone informed on, but I am drawing a blank right now.

Hope everyone gets in some riding time.

WTD Princess,
Emily Mason
