I can't say this enough,

Please push yourselves to turn in your articles as soon as possible. If you are going to be late let me know by email as soon as you know. I can work with you. But not if its going to be longer than a day of two.

The Riders Round Up is the best way to let all of our members know when your events are within your club and let us know all about your members.

The Riders Round Up is also a most essential tool for new members within your club. Everybody loves to see their name, or their picture, or their success stories of their family members in the newsletter.

So get motivated and start writing those articles.

Howdy Everyone,

February sure did fly by fast. Lisa and I went to San Angelo to the parade. We had a good time seeing everyone and visiting. Thank you to Buster, Barbara and Brittany for letting us camp out at their house for the weekend. After the parade we had lunch and went to the rodeo performance. Thanks again for all the hospitality.

March is here and playday season is among us. The only thing the association has scheduled for March is a workday on March 15th. We are going to be working on the concession stand awning that fell during the ice storm and taking down the pens under the announcer stand at arena one. Please bring welders and cutting torches. For those who would like to come and help out in other ways: mowing and weed eating needs to be done along with cleaning the concession stand.

In April we have Save a Life Benefit/Spring Roundup at the 18th and 19th. There is a flyer in the rider's roundup. For more information, you can call Sylvia Brown or Wendy Vann.

As a friendly reminder, the association dues were due by March 1st. We still like some clubs having all Hope to see everyone at the workday!

Hello again from West Texas,

Well, we have had a pretty busy month. Twin Mountain Riding Club had a playday on Feb. 8.

We had a pretty good turn out. Everyone had a good time and thanks to everyone who pitched in to help because with a lot of our members missing we were short handed. Then the next weekend Brittney and myself spent all day Saturday running wiring for a new ac and heater for our house.

This weekend we had the San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo parade. Thanks to U.B., Lisa, Sarge, Joy, Kyle, Jan and Ruby Crocker for coming in and riding with Brittney and myself in the parade to represent the AASP&RC. After the parade, we all went to eat lunch with TMRC and then to the rodeo. Again thanks to everyone for traveling to San Angelo to ride in the parade. We really enjoyed visiting with everyone.

March 1, TMRC is having a work day at their arena. March 8, District 5 is having their first district playday at TMRC arena. And don't forget the Association workday at Bowie on March 15. We need all the help we can get. So come help. REMEMBER THE GROUNDS BELONG TO EVERY MEMBER OF AASP&RC AND IT TAKES US ALL TO KEEP IT UP AND LOOKING GOOD.

Well I guess that will do it for this month. I hope to see a lot of you at Bowie on March 15.

Region 1 VP * Jackie Dunlap

Hey from Lubbock,

It's a beautiful wind blown day here in Lubbock. The sky is brown. Spring is almost here, time change is only a week away. Thank goodness I'm ready to get more than one horse a night rode. Playday season is beginning all over the association. District 2 clubs begin in March. Lubbock Saddle Club is the first weekend. West Texas Drifters will be the second Saturday. District 2 will be the fourth Saturday. If anyone is visiting our area come on by and play with us. I'm looking forward to a great year this year. I wish everyone luck.

Region 1 is trying to find sponsors for the Stick horse barrel race. We would like to have it again this year. If we don't get sponsors for the saddle, buckle, and other awards it WON'T take place. If any members would like to help find sponsors I will get the information to you. Just contact me. If you haven't been to watch the barrel race you are missing out. The excitement of the kids running for a saddle is great. Last year there were 13 kids running. There will be a region meeting in March to decide if the Stick horse barrel race will take place.

I'm really looking forward to SRU and the Save a Life Ride a Horse barrel race. I hope to see a ton of members and barrel races that weekend. I have been telling the girls I run with up here about it and they are excited to come run.

We still need rain in this part of the country and state. Please be praying for rain.

Until our paths cross again,
Happy riding,
Jackie Dunlap

We've hit the ground running this season. We had a 50/50 playday between both clubs. Lubbock saddle club won the challenge. They got to keep the traveling trophy. This was held at this time so that we could also use it as a membership drive for both clubs. The money made from all the riders that day was split between both clubs.

We will be having our first district playday March 22, then as follows: April 26, May 17, June 28, August 23, and the final one will be September 27. All the playdays will have books opening at 1:00 and rides beginning at 2:00.

We will be having royalty represented at the beginning of every playday.

We are looking forward to a new season.

We will have our next district meeting March 11 at the south plains electric meeting.

Hello everyone,

First of all I want to remind everyone of the work day at Bowie March 15. We need all the help we can get.

Saturday the 22nd we rode in the San Angelo Stock Show Parade. President U.B. Herrington, Executive Vice President Buster Jones, his daughter Brittany and Region 7 V.P. Sarge Mainville also rode. Brittany carried our association flag. My wife, Ruby also attended. Yes she is finally back in the saddle after having both knees replaced. Jeton Tumlinson was gracious enough to host us and the horses.

I must say I never dreamed the parade would be so big. Seemed it was as big as the Fort Worth parade. There were all kinds of horse drawn vehicles including a stage coach, numerous covered wagons and buggies. Cody Waggoner, the Texas Tech Red Raider was also in attendance.

This was Easy's first trip to town and he had never been ridden on pavement so I did not know how he would react to the crowds and all the noise. I splurged and bought rubber shoes so if he did get excited and acted up he would not slip and fall on the pavement. Ruby said he looked like he was wearing galoshes. He was a perfect gentleman and although his head was on a swivel watching all the activity, he never acted up.

It is wonderful to be blessed with good horses and a great wife, not necessarily in that order. Good bye for now and hope to see you at the workday.

Jan Crocker

Poor Boy Riding Club

We kicked our new season off on the chilly side

We had 40 riders layered up staying warm and having fun.

Our Royalty for 2014 was chosen before our playday. Our 2014 Senior Sweetheart is Tara Hill the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. D.P. Hill. Tara has been a club member for several years and also attends the finals each year. Our Junior Sweetheart is Riley Cook the 9 year old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lynn Cook. Riley has been a club member for several years and also attended the finals at Bowie. Congratulations to both these young ladies. I am sure they will represent PBRC very well this year.

Twin Mountain Riding Club

Happy almost Spring everyone,

We here at Twin Mountain are ready for some much needed warmer weather so that we can start riding our horses and being outside more.

We held our first playday of the New Year and our winners were: Tres Brock Super Pee Wee Boys, Makailey Brock Pee Wee Girl, Tyler Rodgers Pee Wee Boys, Kyliegh King Intermediate Women, Lori Brock Senior Women, Jeton Tumlinson Super/Classic Women and Raymond Rutledge Super/Classic Men.

After the playday, some of us went and had dinner together and enjoyed some visitation. We had several members that could not be at our playday that usually work really hard for us so we all had to pitch in to make the day a success.

We had our San Angelo Stock Show and Rodeo Parade on the 22th of February and we were glad to have our AASP & RC President U.B., Executive Vice President Buster, Region 6 Vice President Jan and Region 7 Vice President Sarge. Brittney Jones and Ruby Crocker rode with the officers to give them some beauty. It was great to see Lisa as well.

I want to congratulate our club for placing 2nd place in the in town division. We had 13 riders and we looked pretty sharp. I want to thank Donna Rutledge for adding our extra bling to our uniforms this year.

The parade was a success but was a little slow to start and after a couple of horse problems went off without a hitch.

After the parade we all went and had lunch and it was great to visit with everyone. Guess you can tell that Twin Mountain Riding Club likes to eat.

We have a work day scheduled for the 1st of March at our arena to get it ready for our District Playday that is coming up the 2nd weekend of March.

We have another playday scheduled the last weekend of this month and look forward to seeing everyone.

I leave you this month with these words.

Daniel's Gloves

A very moving story. I'm glad I took a few minutes to read this.

I sat, with two friends, in the picture window of a quaint restaurant just off the corner of the town-square. The food and the company were both especially good that day.

As we talked, my attention was drawn outside, across the street. There, walking into town, was a man who appeared to be carrying all his worldly goods on his back. He was carrying, a well-worn sign that read,

'I will work for food.' My heart sank.

I brought him to the attention of my friends and noticed that others around us had stopped eating to focus on him. Heads moved in a mixture of sadness and disbelief.

We continued with our meal, but his image lingered in my mind. We finished our meal and went our separate ways. I had errands to do and quickly set out to accomplish them.

I glanced toward the town square, looking somewhat halfheartedly for the strange visitor. I was fearful, knowing that seeing him again would call for some response. I drove through town and saw nothing of him. I made some purchases at a store and got back in my car. Deep within me, the Spirit of God kept speaking to me: 'Don't go back to the office until you've at least driven once more around the square.' Then with some hesitancy, I headed back into town. As I turned the square's third corner, I saw him. He was standing on the steps of the church, going through his sack.

I stopped and looked; feeling both compelled to speak to him, yet wanting to drive on. The empty parking space on the corner seemed to be a sign from God: an invitation to park. I pulled in, got out and approached the town's newest visitor.

'Looking for the pastor?' I asked.

'Not really,' he replied, 'just resting.'

'Have you eaten today?'

'Oh, I ate something early this morning.'

'Would you like to have lunch with me?'

'Do you have some work I could do for you?'

'No work,' I replied 'I commute here to work from the city, but I would like to take you to lunch.'

'Sure,' he replied with a smile.

As he began to gather his things, I asked some surface questions.

'Where you headed?'

'St. Louis '

'Where you from?'

'Oh, all over; mostly Florida ..'

'How long you been walking?'

'Fourteen years,' came the reply.

I knew I had met someone unusual. We sat across from each other in the same restaurant I had left earlier. His face was weathered slightly beyond his 38 years. His eyes were dark yet clear, and he spoke with an eloquence and articulation that was startling. He removed his jacket to reveal a bright red T-shirt that said, 'Jesus is The Never Ending Story.'

Then Daniel's story began to unfold. He had seen rough times early in life. He'd made some wrong choices and reaped the consequences..

Fourteen years earlier, while backpacking across the country, he had stopped on the beach in Daytona... He tried to hire on with some men who were putting up a large tent and some equipment. A concert, he thought.

He was hired, but the tent would not house a concert but revival services, and in those services he saw life more clearly. He gave his life over to God.

'Nothing's been the same since,' he said, 'I felt the Lord telling me to keep walking, and so I did, some 14 years now.'

'Ever think of stopping?' I asked.

'Oh, once in a while, when it seems to get the best of me. But God has given me this calling. I give out Bibles. That's what's in my sack. I work to buy food and Bibles, and I give them out when His Spirit leads.' I sat amazed. My homeless friend was not homeless. He was on a mission and lived this way by choice. The question burned inside for a moment and then I asked: 'What's it like?'

'What?' 'To walk into a town carrying all your things on your back and to show your sign?'

'Oh, it was humiliating at first. People would stare and make comments. Once someone tossed a piece of half-eaten bread and made a gesture that certainly didn't make me feel welcome. But then it became humbling to realize that God was using me to touch lives and change people's concepts of other folks like me.'

My concept was changing, too. We finished our dessert and gathered his things. Just outside the door, he paused. He turned to me and said, 'Come Ye blessed of my Father and inherit the kingdom I've prepared for you. For when I was hungry you gave me food, when I was thirsty you gave me drink, a stranger and you took me in.'

I felt as if we were on holy ground. 'Could you use another Bible?' I asked.

He said he preferred a certain translation. It traveled well and was not too heavy. It was also his personal favorite.. 'I've read through it 14 times,' he said.

'I'm not sure we've got one of those, but let's stop by our church and see' I was able to find my new friend a Bible that would do well, and he seemed very grateful.

Continued...

*'Where are you headed from here?' I asked.
 'Well, I found this little map on the back of this amusement park
 Coupon
 'Are you hoping to hire on there for a while?'
 'No, I just figure I should go there. I figure someone under that star right there needs a Bible, so that's where I'm going next.'
 He smiled, and the warmth of his spirit radiated the sincerity of his mission. I drove him back to the town-square where we'd met two hours earlier, and as we drove, it started raining. We parked and unloaded his things.
 'Would you sign my autograph book?' he asked... 'I like to keep messages from folks I meet.'
 I wrote in his little book that his commitment to his calling had touched my life. I encouraged him to stay strong. And I left him with a verse of scripture from Jeremiah, 'I know the plans I have for you, declared the Lord, 'plans to prosper you and not to harm you; Plans to give you a future and a hope.'
 'Thanks, man,' he said. 'I know we just met and we're really just strangers, but I love you.'
 'I know,' I said, 'I love you, too.' 'The Lord is good!'
 'Yes, He is. How long has it been since someone hugged you?' I asked.
 A long time,' he replied
 And so on the busy street corner in the drizzling rain, my new friend and I embraced, and I felt deep inside that I had been changed..
 He put his things on his back, smiled his winning smile and said, 'See you in the New Jerusalem.'
 'I'll be there!' was my reply.
 He began his journey again. He headed away with his sign dangling from his bedroll and pack of Bibles. He stopped, turned and said, 'When you see something that makes you think of me, will you pray for me?'
 'You bet,' I shouted back, 'God bless.'
 'God bless.' And that was the last I saw of him.
 Late that evening as I left my office, the wind blew strong. The cold front had settled hard upon the town. I bundled up and hurried to my car. As I sat back and reached for the emergency brake, I saw them.... a pair of well-worn brown work gloves neatly laid over the length of the handle. I picked them up and thought of my friend and wondered if his hands would stay warm that night without them.
 Then I remembered his words: 'If you see something that makes you think of me, will you pray for me?'
 Today his gloves lie on my desk in my office.. They help me to see the world and its people in a new way, and they help me remember those two hours with my unique friend and to pray for his ministry. 'See you in the New Jerusalem,' he said. Yes, Daniel, I know I will..
 'I shall pass this way but once. Therefore, any good that I can do or any kindness that I can show, let me do it now, for I shall not pass this way again.'
 My instructions were to send this to four people that I wanted God to bless and I picked you. Please pass this to four people you want to be blessed.
 This prayer is powerful and there is nothing attached. Please do not break this pattern. Prayer is one of the best gifts we receive. There is no cost but a lot of rewards. Let's continue to pray for one another.
 God bless and have a nice day!
 'Father, I ask you to bless my friends, relatives and e-mail buddies reading this right now. Show them a new revelation of your love and power. Holy Spirit, I ask you to minister to their spirit at this very moment. Where there is pain, give them your peace and mercy. Where there is self-doubt, release a renewed confidence through your grace, In Jesus' precious Name Amen.'*

Until next time,
 Jeton Tumlinson
 Twin Mountain Riding Club

We are getting ready to kick off our playday season. I hope everyone has taken advantage of the pretty days to get their horses legged back up. February 16 we had a 50/50 between both riding clubs, the Lubbock Saddle Club and West Texas Drifters. We lost this one, but there is always next year. The winning club got to keep a traveling trophy. We split the amount made between both clubs.

We have a team sorting on March 8 at Lonesome pine. Practice begins 10:00 to 12:00 and then it begins at 1:00.

We have our first playday set for March 15. The rest will be as follows: April 12, May 10, no playday in June so we can attend AASP&RC playday finals. The we start back up with July 13, and finish up with August 16 and September 13. We will have October 11 set for a make up playday if needed.

Times are B.O. 1:00 ride at 2:00 March, April and May. July B.O. 2:00 ride at 3:00, August and September B.O. 4:00 ride at 5:00. The make up playday if needed will be B.O. 1:00 ride at 2:00.

We are getting ready for the ABC rodeo March 27, 28, and 29th. We will be wearing our new club uniforms. I am excited to see us as a group.

I am looking forward to representing my club again this year as princess along with Tatum. Hope everyone has a good month.

Happy riding till next time,
 WTD Princess Emily Mason
